CLASS OF 2008

CROSSING PATHS

We all entered this world with no knowledge of the places we would someday go and of the people we would meet. As we have grown and matured, we have begun our own independent journeys, sometimes following the paths of others but more frequently creating our own. As we have traveled together, we have met unique challenges, reflected on failures, and celebrated successes. The class of 2008 has crossed paths in various ways since we have set foot in the high school: cheering each other on during sporting events, expanding our minds in classrooms, inspiring each other to perform during drama, or simply passing in the halls. Crossing paths over the past few years has made us more than a group of individuals who attended the same school; our lives have intersected at Stoneham High School and we have become a part of each other. We have grown together and influenced each other in ways that will leave permanent footprints on our memories. This book serves as a chronicle of these last four years and of the companions we traveled with during this memorable part of our journey.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Lorrie Pagluica

In 8th grade many of us who were on the Blue Team remember walking into Room 105 to a warm smile. That same smile also welcomed us at SHS. Ms. Pagluica has been walking literally next to us both at the middle school and high school. Her nuturing characteristics and her immense passion for teaching has made her the kind of teacher you hope you have before you graduate.

You might remember Ms. Pagluica's magic school bus, her question of the day, or even her catch phrase, "You will love this class!" from the middle school. She was there laughing with us at the team building activity, the karaoke contest. She then journeyed with us up to the high school. We were the last grade to have the privilege of her teaching us in both schools. Ms. Pagluica also feels that connection with us. She has been amazed to see how we have grown, physically and academically, from middle school to who we are now.

She has impacted us through her teaching and caring. She describes our class as one where students "support one another, are compassionate towards one another, and will experience success in their lives." She felt deeply honored to have been chosen for this honor and said, "I feel as if I have won an academy award!" Thank you for all you have done for us on this path we have shared for a time. We will remember you!

SCHOOL DAYS

Steve, Miles, John and Roy take a break from doing some serious computing.

Emily and Alyssa head back to class.

Raisa and Megan, all smiles walking into school.

"Tambo" being "Tambo."

Meaghan is focused and ready for her next class.

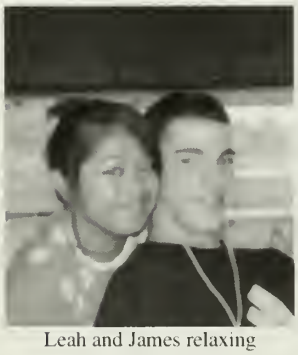
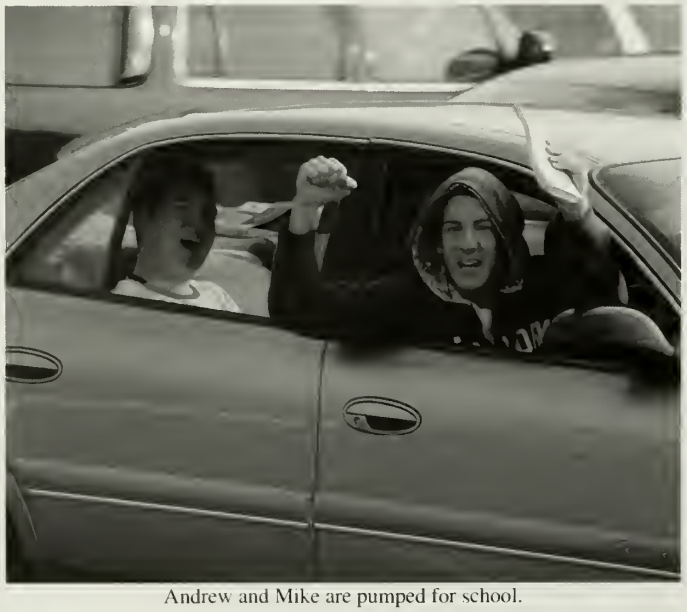
Tim plays the trumpet as always.



Leah and James relaxing before school starts.



Andrew and Mike are pumped for school.

Adam and Adrian are just happy to be here.

Cam, Andrew, and Annalisa waiting for class to start.

Steve carries Jeremy to class.

Lindsay and Deb are ready for Powder Puff.

Scott is ready for the math test.

Nikki and Jean say goodbye as they leave school.

Tim makes the news in the Boston Herald.

Laura and Vicky exchanging data.

FACULTY

There are thousands of paths we can follow as we travel on this journey we call life. These roads intersect with the paths of those we have met or are going to meet, including our teachers. No matter how brief these meetings may be, they often leave a deep and lasting impact on our lives. We've had teachers here at the high school that we may have had in middle school. Hopefully, our paths will continue to cross in the future. When we see them again, they may be clients or even co-workers. We might not know the circumstances now, but we can only hope that our paths meander together in the future. They demanded more from us than we ever thought possible. As we choose our paths, we are grateful to our teachers and the rest of the faculty who helped to guide our choices. By sharing their experiences, knowledge, and wisdom they have given us potential paths previously unimagined.

Charlene, Leah, Gianna, Margaret, and Chris surround Mr. Jackson, keeper of the planetarium. He is also known as the Science Program Supervisor and a teacher of earth science and meteorology. This shining star is retiring after 40 years.

Mr. Lague entertained and taught Stoneham students for 9 years as a musician, teacher, Fine Arts Program Supervisor, and cowboy. A true Renaissance man, he retires from teaching with 40 years under his belt.

Mr. Mucica imparted his words of wisdom about English and life in general to upperclassmen for over 33 years. His love and knowledge of film and drama are legendary. His dry wit will be missed.

Lindsay, Maura and Raisa pose with Ms. Vecchio, Program Supervisor of English and a 36-year veteran middle and high school English teacher. Her passion for reading and writing has inspired scores of students and teachers.

"Older and wiser voices can help you find the right path, if you are only willing to listen."

-- Jimmy Buffett

Dear Faculty,

For the last four years as our paths have crossed, we have traveled together. As our individual paths now veer away from yours, what parting advice would you give to us as we continue on the journey of our lives?

Class of 2008

There are many different paths in life that you could walk down after graduation. Sometimes the straight and easy path is the hardest to follow. Many times we find ourselves traveling down the rough and winding path. Learn from every rock you avoid, every hill you climb, and every bridge you cross. For you are stronger with every obstacle you conquer and happiness may be around the next corner.

Mr. C. Serino

The journey is the reward.

Ms. Stratford

Compose yourself. Let your parents and teachers be instrumental in your lives. Sing the praises of others.
Let there be harmony in your lives.
Keep up the tempo and rhythm of your daily work.
Hope your hours are filled with melodies that are not strident, but flowing. Because, like PRESTO, time marches on.

Mr. Lague

Be true to yourself!

Ms. DiLisio

"Intelligence is not enough. Intelligence plus character -- that is the goal of true education."
-- Martin Luther King

Mrs. Pierce

Everyday we decide who we will be by the actions we take!

Mrs. Burnham

* Remember the compliments you receive -- forget the insults.
* Don't worry about the future -- enjoy today like it is your last.
* Take way too many pictures.
* Keep true friends close and your family closer.
* Do what makes YOU happy.

Ms. Cakounes

Be who you are.

Ms. Catalano

I love the following quote and I think that we all need reminding that life is not supposed to be a certain way; it is whatever you find on your own journey.

"The road of life can only reveal itself as it is traveled;
each turn in the road reveals a surprise."
-- Anonymous

Enjoy and learn from surprises!!

Mrs. Pagluica

Mrs. Collins' 3 rules to navigate life successfully:

1. If there's food, eat it.
2. If there's a bathroom, use it.
3. Always bring a sweatshirt!

"You can't always get what you want, but if you try, sometimes, you get what you need."
-- Rolling Stones

Mr. McCaffery

You can do anything you desire in life. All it takes is a positive attitude, focus, and desire. There is no substitute for hard work and a good attitude. They are both the "secrets to success."

Mr. Adams

"Courage, it would seem, is nothing less than the power to overcome danger, misfortune, fear, injustice, while continuing to affirm inwardly that life with all its sorrows is good; that everything is meaningful even if in a sense beyond our understanding; and that there is always tomorrow."
-- Dorothy Thompson

Mrs. Kourembanas

If you should cross the path of someone you don't agree with or someone who frustrates you. always remember that this person is somebody's loved one or friend.

Mrs. Cargill

The theme of your yearbook reminds me of a Robert Frost poem The Road Not Taken. The last few lines read:

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I --
I took the one less traveled by,
And that made all the difference."

So, my advice to the Class of 2008 is to think about taking the less traveled road; be independent and dare to try the unfamiliar. It may make all the difference for you.

Mrs. Croteau

First and foremost, be true to yourself! You will meet many people as you continue your journey through life; some will influence you in a positive way, some may not. Be strong. Accept the positive and filter out the negative. Be willing to learn, but never compromise your principles.

Ms. Chapman

We love things for a reason. They often give us the direction we should follow. The world does not always know what we should do, but there is a quiet voice inside that is always right, if we can block out all the noise and go quiet enough to hear it, which is, indeed, the challenge.
Mrs. Nolan

* Try not to judge others or yourself too harshly.

* Remember that the compassion you show a person might be the only kindness they have experienced in a long time.

* Be proud of your heritage and your roots.

* Live adventurously, responsibly, and compassionately.

Ms. Stevens

It is a dream to graduate from high school. Take what you have learned and apply it to make the world a better place for all.

Mr. LoRusso

* Do great things with your lives.

* Make a difference.

* Find a career that you love so you'll greet every day with a smile.

* Be a good and loyal friend.

* And, of course, read!

Mrs. DiPietro

As you graduate from SHS, remember this is "not the sunset, but the dawn." This may sound strange coming from the principal, but "question authority" as long as you do it in a respectful way. And also remember .... stick up for the underdogs as they cross your path in life.

Mr. Russo

DANCES

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go.
Some stay for a while, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never, ever the same."

ACTIVITIES

"Look at every path closely and deliberately, then ask ourselves this crucial question: Does this path have a heart? If it does, then the path is good. If it doesn't, it is of no use."

What was your favorite memory of Grease?

During the Friday night show of Grease, I had to dance in place of Kinicky in the Handjive. I'm not an actress, so it was crazy.

Vicky Blyde

Mat Crawford

I remember the first night of the show. I put on my stage make-up, leaned into the mirror, and thought, "I look so old...how wonderful."

Alicia Silvestri

Eugene has been my dream role and I tried my hardest to embody him (although looking at me, I guess you could say I was typecast.) I couldn't have asked for a better cast either. I really miss the show.

GREASE

Sandy shares tales of 'summer lovin' with the Pink Ladies and Patty.

Danny brags about his Summer Nights to the T-Birds.

The Drama Club performed the 50's hit show Grease for the spring musical. Under the direction of Ms. Danielle Catalano, Mr. Jason Epps, Usama Saadat, the musical direction of Mr. Robert Lague, and the stage management of Ryan Bergstrom and Vicky Blyde, Rydell High came alive on Stoneham High School's stage. This classic tale of summer lovin' starts when preppy Sandy (Kelly Landers) falls in love with tough greaser Danny Zuko (Andrew Barbato). The story becomes more interesting when Sandy transfers to Danny's school, Rydell High, which is run by the ditzy Miss Lynch (Alicia Silvestri). The Pink Ladies, (Janie McCarthy, Emily DiPietro, Ashlyn Sacco, and Kim Warren) befriend Sandy and take her into their group. Danny's group, the T-Birds (Eric Melkonian, Danny Marchant, Angelo McDonough, and Tommy O'Connell) give him a hard time when they find out that Sandy was his summer fling. Somewhere between Those Summer Nights, Hopelessly Devoted to You, and It's Raining on Prom Night (with Radio Singer Laura Graczyk), Sandy begins to realize the Danny she knew was hidden under his leather jacket and tough guy exterior. Danny realizes how poorly he has treated Sandy, but he wins her back! Nerdy Eugene (Cam Kelly) and perky Patty Simcox (Deidre Burke) round out the cast of Rydell High School. Laura Graczyk's wonderful choreography rocked the auditorium during the prom scene and Born to Hand Jive with Johnny Casino (Tony DiBiase) and Cha-Cha DiGregorio (Katia DeStefano). Mat Crawford played dual roles as Vince Fontaine and one of the Teen Angels along with Theo Yeomalakis and Kyle Arrington. Senior ensemble cast members included: Julie Albiani, Michael Rora, and Annalisa Giglio. The Construction Crew, under the direction of Matthew Angelosanto and Ryan Alfonso, did a fantastic job of bringing a retro vibe into the sets with several platforms, the Greased Lightning car and a great 50s-esque diner counter. Senior crew members included: Tim Landers, Kelsey Corbett, Alicia Silvestri, Dan Brenton, Ari Drane, Kevin Tse, Steve Bradley, and Nick Chaves. The Costumes Department was also hard at work sewing all the prom dresses, the cheerleading uniforms, and the T-Bird and Pink Ladies' jackets. Costume Supervisors included: Billy Moriarty, Caty Sheils and Alex Ryder, and seniors on Costumes Crew were Julie Albiani, Deirdre Burke, Annalisa Giglio, and Lilli Harvie. Joining the Hair and Make-up Crew was senior Jasmine Pham. Lighting, under the direction of Max Grover, was fantastic and greatly accented the entire show. Once the show ended, 'the worst thing we could do' was say goodbye to all the seniors in the show.

The Juniors: Guess the occupation!

What was your favorite memory of Arsenic and Old Lace?

My favorite scene in the whole show was when I got to explain the show I wrote, which was horrible.

Julie Albiani

I've always loved the family atmosphere of our drama club, and it was particularly wonderful to be the senior class bringing our underclassmen into our family this year.

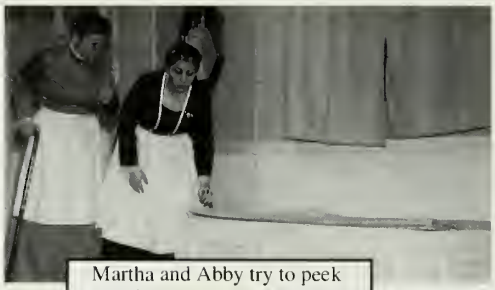
Sarah Arrington

Arsenic was a great show, I think it was the first time that our costumes crew actually completed all costumes before the actors went on stage.

Billy Moriarty

How could I ever forget Arsenic? I was sick the entire week with a cold and it was my first time as house manager. But my favorite memory had to be knowing that it was my senior class play and I had put my heart into it.

Arianna Drane



Martha and Abby try to peek at their latest accomplishment.

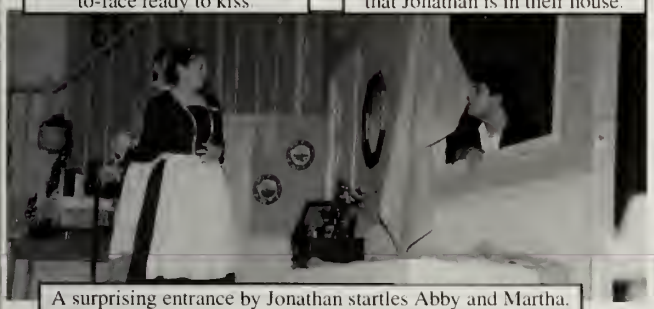
Arsenic and Old Lace

Elaine and Mortimer talk while Martha and Abby eavesdrop.

Elaine and Mortimer are face-to-face ready to kiss.

Abby and Martha are shocked that Jonathan is in their house.



A surprising entrance by Jonathan startles Abby and Martha.

In the fall of 2007, the Stoneham High Drama Club performed Arsenic and Old Lace, a quirky story of two murderous old women living in Brooklyn. The play was well directed by Mr. Jason Eppskrier and Ms. Jessica Swegel. Technical Supervisors Mrs. Danielle Catalano and Mr. Paul Murphy, Assistant Director Vicky Blyde, and Stage Manager Ashlyn Sacco all greatly contributed to the play. Arsenic and Old Lace by Joseph Kesselring focuses on two sisters, (Deirdre Burke and Alicia Silvestri), who are famous in their Brooklyn neighborhood for their numerous acts of charity. However, their charities include poisoning lonely old men who come to their home looking for a place to stay. The two women are assisted in their crimes by their mentally challenged nephew (Ryan Marchant), who believes he is Teddy Roosevelt. For many years, the two women have been fooling some of the townspeople including Rev. Harper (Sarah Arrington), Officer O'Hara (Julie Albiani), and the remainder of the police staff. Matters get complicated when their nephew Mortimer (Daniel Marchant), a theater critic, and his fiancée Elaine (Laura Graczyk), show up. Their third nephew Jonathan (Theo Yeomelakis), a crazed murderer, and Eva Einstein (Kasey Conlon), who poses as a doctor, invite themselves to stay at their home and try to kill Mortimer. The two dead bodies of the play (Alora Frederick and Jill Graczyk), both worked magnificently with the other characters to truly act and look dead. Technical Directors Ryan Alfonso and Danielle Salvi and Assistant Technical Director Nikki Roberto set up a fantastically realistic home for the elderly aunts to do their business in. The seniors on the Construction Crew, Daniel Brenton, Arianna Drane, Kevin Price, Mary Rora, Alicia Silvestri, and Kevin Tse, all worked hard to create a truly beautiful set. Other crew members who work long nights to finish the set included Katie Conneely, Nick Federico, Amanda Frost, Ashley Mercer, Dave Hume, Alison Gould, and Dave Vargas. Props (Kasey Conlon, Sean Perry, and Michael Wilson-Pierce), costumes (William Moriarty, Lillie Harvie, Margaret Zoladkowski, Annalisa Giglio, Renee O'Brien, Matthew Crawford, Julie Albiani, and Deirdre Burke), hair and make-up (Vicky Blyde, Deirdre Burke, Laura Graczyk, Ashlyn Sacco, Kate Foley, Amanda Mero, Jasmine Pham, Nikki Roberto, and Alicia Silvestri), lights (Robert Duff-Turcotte, Deepti Kanneganti, and Ali Simeone) and sound (Vicky Blyde) all made important and wonderful contributions to the play's excellence. As a whole performance, the fall production of Arsenic and Old Lace was a wonderful success.

What was your favorite memory of the Winter Concert?

The Winter Concert made me think about how much fun I've had playing with the band and now I have the pleasure of performing with the Jazz Ensemble. I'm glad to see many younger members stepping up and taking the lead in their section.

Kevin Price

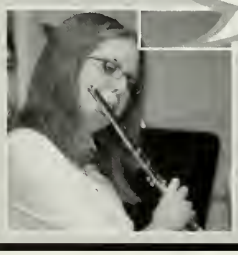
My favorite part of the Winter Concert was singing the medley of Oliver songs. The songs were very fun to sing and the audience got very involved. It was a great time.

Mary Rora

I liked the relaxed atmosphere of the concert and the positive response from the audience after we played songs like Pirates of the Caribbean and The Incredibles.

Tim Hurley

The best part of the Winter Concert was when the entire band stood up for Mr. Grammer -- successfully.



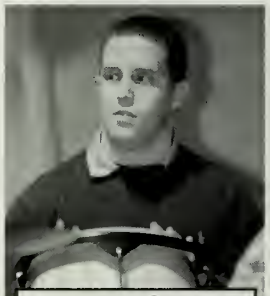
Meaghan Kelley

Mary, Rachel, and Deirdre at the start of the concert.

Meaghan plays gracefully while Chris looks toward the conductor.

Mike focuses on hitting every note.

Eric strums his guitar.



Marc enjoys the congo beat.

Sarah sings with ease.

Mat shines above all.

Andrew entertains the crowd.

Kevin's clarinet playing earned him a place with the All-State Band.

Jordan rocks out with his solo.

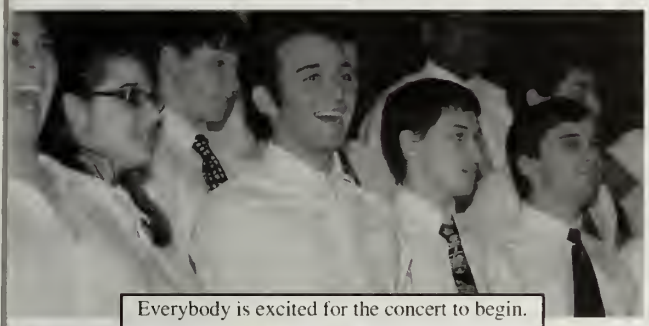
Winter Concert

Christina is in the zone.

Miranda plays with confidence.



Everybody is excited for the concert to begin.

The annual Winter Concert was a hit sensation. The Concert Band and the Spartan Chorale, Chamber Chorus, and Jazz Ensemble gave their best efforts and it showed. The months of preparation paid off.

On Thursday, January 17, the concert opened with the Chamber Chorus performing Pat-A-Pan under the direction of Mr. Robert Lague and with the accompaniment of Mr. Edmund Grammer on the flute. They also performed Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho which was a more upbeat piece. The Jazz Ensemble followed with three great songs, Walkin, D Natural Blues, and Evil Ways. Senior District and All-State member Kevin Price and fellow senior Jordan Howard had beautiful solos throughout the performances.

After intermission, the show continued with the Spartan Chorale. The concert reopened with the song, Give My Regards to Broadway. Then the chorus slowed things down a little with the peaceful, swaying tune, Over the Sea to Skye. Afterwards, the chorus sung a classic piece, Nightingale, which was also used for the audition of the Northeastern District Chorus. (Senior Mary Rora and freshman Alison Gould were accepted into the District Chorus.) As a surprise for Mrs. Lague, Mr. Lague and the Spartan Chorale performed You Are So Beautiful (the Lague's wedding song). The Chorale finished their section with choral arrangements from Oliver! Soloists performing in the arrangements were seniors Deirdre Burke, Sarah Arrington, Andrew Barbato, and sophomore Kyle Arrington. Finally, the band ended the concert with four outstanding pieces. Music for a Darkened Theatre, Halo Theme, Suite from The Magic Flute, and Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End.

The 2008 Winter Concert could not have gone any better; the effort throughout the show was amazing. None of it would have been possible without the support and care of the directors Mr. Edmund Grammer (Jazz Ensemble and The Concert Band) and Mr. Robert Lague (Chamber Chorus and the Spartan Chorale), who is retiring this year.

Mr. Lague makes parting remarks at his final SHS Winter Concert.

Mary is noted for her high soprano voice.

The guitar trio in the Jazz Ensemble.

Randy keeps things in rhythm.

Ashley loves being part of the alto section.

Deirdre just about to finish her solo.

Andrew receives a hug from Mrs. Lague after singing a surprise rendition of her wedding song.

Marc and Marcello give the Jazz Ensemble a beat.

Mike sings his heart out.

National Honor Society

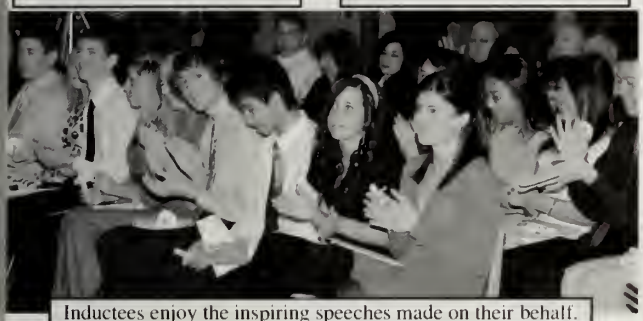
Every year a select few students receive the prestigious privilege of being inducted into the National Honor Society. Not only do these students maintain a minimum 4.1 GPA, but they must also demonstrate leadership, excellence of character, and compassion through service. On February 11, 2008, thirty students were inducted into this distinguished organization while parents and relatives filled the cafeteria with excitement and pride.

The ceremony commenced with speeches by the senior officers. Victoria Blyde delivered a speech on leadership, Maura Houghton discussed scholarship, Jennifer Morton spoke about character, and Lindsay Morrissey shared her thoughts on service. All of these motivational, laudatory speeches were followed by a moving address delivered by Mr. Cummings in which he encouraged students to prepare for the future. NHS advisor, Mrs. Cargill, and SHS principal, Mr. Russo, also gave heartfelt speeches to the audience. Mr. Lague was inducted as the NHS honorary member and awarded a framed certificate due to his hard work and compassion.

Finally, after all of the speeches and commendations, the Candlelight Ceremony began. Each inductee was awarded a certificate and a pin. Then each lit a candle to represent their radiant success. After reciting the National Honor Society pledge, these students became official members and celebrated with their families.

Everyone takes a moment in the Candlelight Ceremony.

The Chorale starts the evening with the Star Spangled Banner.



Inductees enjoy the inspiring speeches made on their behalf.

What was your favorite memory of Drama Fest?

"My favorite memory was when the mic guy, Ralph, received an award for his accomplishments. Best award of the day."

Danny Marchant

"My favorite memory was the sound of the applause from the audience. We were all so nervous, but the second we stepped onto the stage, the audience roared with laughter."

Deirdre Burke

"My favorite memory was the few seconds right before we were about to perform at prelims. Being with everyone in the cast preparing to put on an amazing show was a great feeling."

Andrew Barbato

"Wait, wait, bo bait, banana fanna, fo fait."

Lilli Harvie

Gwendolyn and Jack flirt over bread and butter.

Lady Bracknell isn't pleased there are no cucumber sandwiches.

Rev. Chasuble and Miss Prism, happy to finally be together.

"Ernest" greets "Ernest."

Happy to really be engaged!

Miss Prism encourages Cecily to study.

Merriman informs Cecily that Ernest is here.

Jack proposes to Gwendolyn!

Cecily and Gwendolyn are so happy to be in love with men "named" Ernest!

Lady Bracknell isn't too fond of Jack and Gwendolyn together.

SENIORS

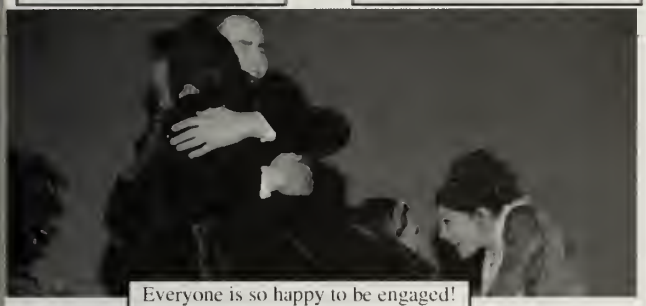
"There were no cucumbers in the market today, even for ready money."

Jack gives Miss Prism the bag he was found in as a baby.



Everyone is so happy to be engaged!

All eyes and ears are on Lady Bracknell while they anxiously await her consent on their engagements.

DramaFest

Every year hundreds of schools across the state of Massachusetts compete in DramaFest. This year the Drama Club advisors, Mr. Eppskrier and Ms. Swegel, decided to produce Oscar Wilde's play, The Importance of Being Earnest. Algernon (Andrew Barbato) is a young man who develops a love interest with Jack's (Danny Marchant) attractive young ward, Cecily (Laura Graczyk). Gwendolyn (Deirdre Burke), the daughter of Lady Bracknell (Alicia Silvestri), falls in love with Jack based almost solely upon his name, Ernest. Meanwhile, Miss Prism (Kasey Conlon), a nanny Jack has hired to help watch after Cecily, falls in love with the local minister, Reverend Chasuble (Ryan Marchant). The chaos that results from all these love interests and mistaken names creates quite a mess full of double identities, unapproved engagements, 'bunburying', and arguments. Lane (Sean Perry), the butler for Algernon, and Merriman (Angelo McDonough), the butler for Jack, added wonderful verbal and physical comedy to the performance. Assistant director Vicky Blyde and stage manager Ashlyn Sacco helped coordinate the entire production.

The actors brought the characters to life with the help of the set, costumes, and props. The opening set was a beautifully constructed elegant living room, decorated and finished with period furniture. When the scene changed to the country, the set became Jack's garden with ivy covered stone walls, an ivy covered lattice, and a working fountain. The building crew was under the direction of Ryan Alfonso, Danielle Salvi and Nikki Roberto and included seniors Kevin Price and Alicia Silvestri. The period costumes were very elaborate and intricate. The costumes crew consisted of Julie Albiani, Annalisa Giglio, Mike Pierce, Mat Crawford, Margaret Zoladkowski, and Sarah Arrington, and was directed by Lilli Harvie and Billy Moriarty. Hair and make-up crew included seniors Vicky Blyde, Deirdre Burke, Laura Graczyk, and Alicia Silvestri.

Three awards were garnered at Prelimininaries: Costumes, Props, and one Acting award. All the members were given an award by the judges for having outstanding costume design and construction. Costumes directors Billy Moriarty and Lilli Harvie deserved that for their amazing costumes. Props master, Kasey Conlon, received an award for her outstanding work of incorporating props into the set. Andrew Barbato was recognized for his excellent performance as Algernon Moncrief. In the end, the show turned out to be a beautiful performance that will be remembered for a long time.

What was your favorite memory of Carnival Ball?

"Definitely when I fell and smacked my face on the stage. Everyone knows that it'd be a lie to say that it wasn't hilarious."

Alicia Silvestri

"Despite the overwhelming amount of memorable moments, my personal favorite was when Tim Landers joined me on stage while wearing his infamous wiener suit."

Joe Butts

"My favorite part of Carnival Ball was watching all my friends in the senior class act."

Jenna Melkonian

"When the curtains opened between acts, I sneezed unbelievably loud and everyone heard it. It was very funny."

Carnival Ball

The faculty act is inspired by High School Musical.

Steven, Maura, and Katelyn are tough critics!

Deirdre sings The Way I Am accompanied by Jordan Howard on the guitar and Mark Latshaw on the bass.

The 2008 Carnival Ball combined tradition with modern themes for this year's show "Carnival Ball Now." Joseph Butts and Alicia Silvestri emceed the show acting as two competing newscasters trying to trick and outdo each other. Alison Kelly was cast as the camera person who was often annoyed by the duo's antics.

Each class act participated in a mock news program. The freshman class act focused on an arts and entertainment piece on the very popular series Harry Potter, bringing us an episode of "Hogwart's Idol." The sophomore class act reported on recent political debates, which introduced some very colorful candidates. The junior class brought us a musical weather segment, which involved a duel between two different news stations. Finally, the senior class act offered a piece about the various parts of the Carnival Ball process, including voting, auditioning, and choreographing the senior waltz.

The individual and group performances of Carnival Ball allow students to showcase their unique and remarkable talents. The first group performance was given by the SHS Concert Band playing selections from Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire. Senior Deirdre Burke sang the The Way I Am accompanied by senior Jordan Howard on guitar and Mark Latshaw on bass. Junior Tony DiBiase sang and played his guitar to his original song Bleeds Like Me. The SHS Spartan Chorale showcased its talented members with a medley from the musical Chicago. Following this, the members of SHS Intermediate Jazz Ensemble showed off their instrumental talents playing Topsy and Cold Duck Time. The Advanced Jazz Ensemble demonstrated their excellent musical ability playing Eclypso and Chameleon. Junior Sara Zavarelli sang No One while accompanying herself on piano. Junior Tommy O'Connell sang Here Comes the Sun and to wrap up the evening, attendant Megan Cunningham sang Only Hope accompanied by Mr. Lague on piano.

Keeping in the Carnival Ball tradition, the attendants Melanie Barrineau, Sara Bassett, Megan Cunningham, Melissa Gregory, Christina Izzicupo, Kerryn Ludwig, Lindsay Manfra, Jenna Motta, Raisa Stockhridge, Lisa Winsor, and Margaret Zoladkowski walked down the aisle to Pomp and Circumstance played by the SHS Concert Band. The ushers Timothy Lee, Dustin Feldman, Michael Sarmanian, Keith Cataldo, Steven DeTeso, Jeremy Peters, Robert DeCrescenzo, Amon Mohammadi, Joseph Penney, Terence Landers, and Craig Polizzi escorted their attendants to the stage. The king, Matthew Trakimas, and the queen, Jenna Melkonian, were then crowned. Afterwards, each couple was introduced. To close out the evening, the attendants and ushers participated in the senior waltz to Remember Me This Way.

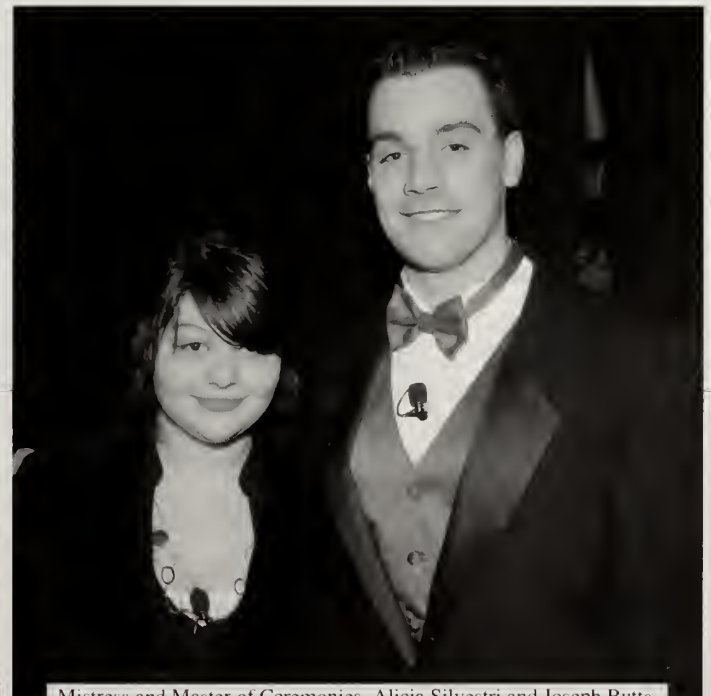
The traditional faculty act was cut short to honor Mr. Robert Lague, longtime music teacher, on his upcoming retirement. At the request of the faculty, Mr. Lague played Take Five, accompanied by Mr. Grammer. A standing ovation and flowers were presented at the conclusion of his performance.

This year's Carnival Ball was memorable. Under the direction of Mr. James Carino and junior Ashlyn Sacco, the show was flawless. The wonderful music was directed by Mr. Edmund Grammer and Mr. Robert Lague. Lighting and audio design were put together by DJ Buono, Deepti Kanneganti, Gillian Collins, and Jill Graczyk. All those who worked as part of the stage crew did a tremendous job making everything run perfectly on stage and off. This year's Carnival Ball was truly a success due to the effort of many students and faculty.

Queen Jenna Melkonian and King Matthew Trakimas

Joe busts a move during the senior act.

Cam and Catie attempt the waltz.



Mistress and Master of Ceremonies, Alicia Silvestri and Joseph Butts.

Tony and Tommy sing an acoustic version of Here Comes the Sun.

Molly steps out of the crowd in the junior class act.

Sara sings No One with a strong and beautiful voice.

The ushers and king dance to I Like to Move It during the senior act.

Megan gives it her all singing Only Hope.

The Chorale sings a medley from Chicago.

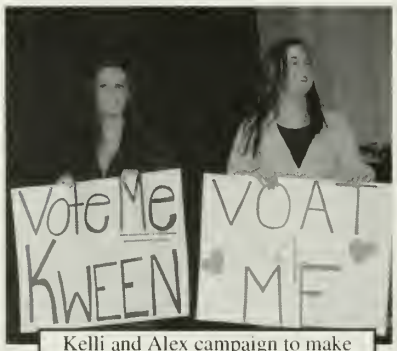
A rapping freshman hopes to make it big on Hogwarts Idol.

Mike does the Charleston as an audition during the senior act.

Dave is impersonating Bill Clinton, who is impersonating Hillary.



Kelli and Alex campaign to make court during the senior act.

Students vote for king and queen during the senior act.

Tony sings one of his original compositions called Bleeds Like Me.

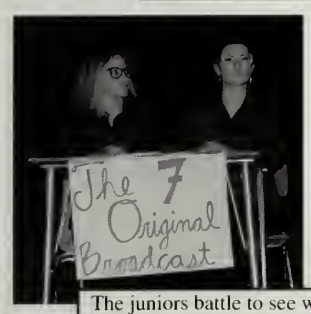
Andrew reaches new heights during the senior class act.

Mr. Lague plays Take Five, his favorite piano piece, accompanied by Mr. Grammer.

Carnival Ball

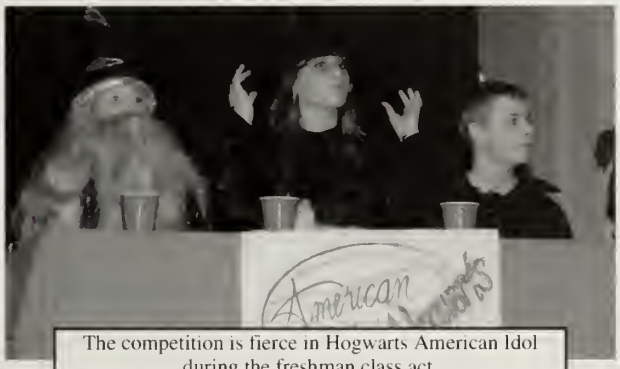
The court hides behind their disguises.

The Senior Waltz

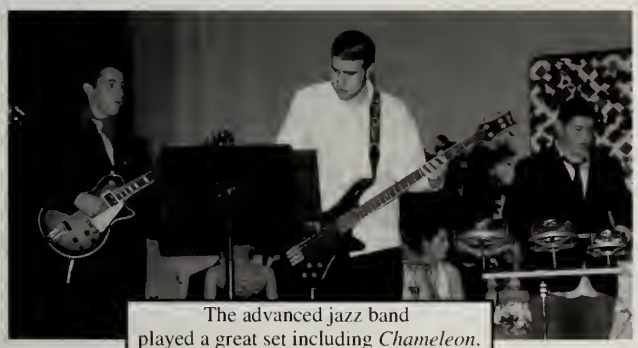


The juniors battle to see which channel is the best.

Matt and Dustin have a thriller dance-off during the senior act.



The competition is fierce in Hogwarts American Idol during the freshman class act.



The advanced jazz band played a great set including Chameleon.

Vinny dances the show away to Britney Spears.

Alison is surprised to find out that she's the new lead anchor!

The audience always looks forward to the jazz band's performance.

Jordan jams.

The queen and attendants of Carnival Ball "like to move it, move it!"

TRIBUTE

Dr. Thomas F. Ryan

"To lead people, walk beside them." - Lao-Tsu, Chinese philosopher

Dr. Thomas Ryan has walked beside thousands of students and staff in his twenty-three years of leading Stoneham High School as its principal. He has steered us through three accreditations and moved us into block scheduling while honoring teachers, students, and parents' time. His seventy-five minute graduation is probably a record! He has celebrated numerous academic, athletic, and artistic accolades that have been won by Stoneham High School students and teams. Supporting teachers was one of his highest priorities and one of many reasons his staff so respected him. Although his love of sports was well-known, he was also an avid afficionado of the arts and never missed a Drama Fest.

Dr. Ryan guided us in the right direction towards fulfilling the vision of our school before leaving this path. We hope his own road may be smooth, yet adventurous and meander back frequently to our own to cheer on our students and to cook appreciation breakfasts for the staff.

CAPTAINS WORDS

There's no better word to describe the Stoneham Field Hockey team of 2007 than determined. Determination not only brings strength and success to a team, but it also creates character. As summer concluded, the Stoneham Field Hockey team planned to join with the Melrose Raiders. One week before sessions began, we were notified that we were left with no team to play on. We practiced continuously with just a few girls, awaiting an answer on any of the few possibilities we had. With the help of Mr. Pignone's willpower, we not only found two amazing coaches, Anna Dobbins and Jerry Bailey, but we also recruited enough girls to play on the varsity team as well as junior varsity.

The turnout for our team was more then we ever expected. We couldn't have asked for a better group of hardworking, athletic girls that were such fun to be around. We had the best record of our high school career, with two wins and two ties. It may not sound like the record of a winning team, but with a majority of inexperienced players, we challenged the teams of the Middlesex League.

The Field Hockey team leaves the seniors, Miranda, Sara, Gianna, and Raisa with unforgettable memories of the season of 2007, including our pasta parties, sleepovers, trips to Boston, and attending school events together. We couldn't have asked for anything more. We want to thank everyone for their support and making it possible to bring back the Stoneham Field Hockey Team!

CAPTAINS WORDS

The 2007 Stoneham High Varsity Golf Team had one of their best seasons in the past few years. Completing the season past their .500 mark, the Spartans made their way to the State Qualifier. Matt Brown qualified for States where he placed 11th overall.

Along with the captain, Matt Brown, the seniors took their roles as leaders of the team. Returning from a defending Middlesex League MVP title, Brown had high hopes for this year. He qualified for States with a 77 at Far Corner Golf Club and placed 11th out of nearly a hundred of the best golfers in the state. Brown also finished the season with an individual match play record of 9-3-2. Matching that same record, Jeremy Cefalo played his best season on the team. By playing a lot during the summer, Jeremy improved his game dramatically and was a consistent player. Evan Yandle spent his time on the team efficiently, always practicing and improving his game. Along with a great swing, John Mattie was a great asset to the team. He always kept up the Spartan's morale with enthusiasm and humor.

The future of the Spartans is bright with the upcoming juniors. Ryan Cail is a future prospect for the No.1 spot next year. He placed third individually at the annual League Shootout and shows great promise. The trio of Shirkoff, Migliorini, and Hertz are a group of passionate players for the game. They play avidly during the summer and have great potential. Anthony Pisano and Danny Lumb are a couple of reliable teammates to carry on.

Although the Spartans are losing some great players this year, those empty spots will be filled with players just as great. The seniors leave the team with their best wishes to the players who made their time on the team so memorable.

VOLLEYBALL

Captain Gretchen Grossheim, Captain Kelsey Corbett, Captain Alisha Panariti

CAPTAINS WORDS

This volleyball season was an overall success for every member of the team. Despite the devastating loss of seniors from last year, our team still stuck together and worked hard every day. We started our season getting to know everyone at captain's practice. Our team clicked right away and it showed on and even off the court. Practices were great and the pasta parties were even better. The first few games of the season started off a little slow, but as time progressed, there was a very noticeable change in our aggression on the court.

As captains, we hope that we helped show the team that winning was not nearly as important as the experience of coming together as a team every day. We worked to be the best we could be and it paid off. Juniors, Kriste Baranauskaite with her outside hitting and blocking, and Ashley Cox, with her outstanding libero skills, made a huge contribution to the team this year. It will be up to them to manage the team next year as seniors and we know that they are ready for it. Our sophomores this year also made a big difference in our team, Madeleine Gaughan is a phenomenal power hitter and will keep the team strong over the next two years. Talia Buonapane and Paige Minotti also did really well, especially when they were most needed. Both of their hitting and serving skills really improved. Our baby freshmen were Ina Karanscha and Melissa Flynn. Ina really earned her spot on the team this year. She tried very hard everyday to improve anything she felt weak with and she always did it with a smile. Flynnie made a huge contribution to the team by stepping up to be the setter a few games into the season. She had never set before in her volleyball experience, but she took on the challenge and soon mastered it.

Overall this year was about improvement and communication. Maybe we didn't have the best record, but this was definitely one of the best combinations of girls in volleyball history. We all got along and we all supported each other through the wins, the losses, the funny times, and the hilarious times, and that is all that matters. So thank you girls and Coach Davison for an amazing year. We will miss you all so much, but we promise to come visit when the season starts again next year. Good luck in 2008 and keep those tippies high ladies!

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Captain Jillian Ragucci,
Coach Kevin Norton, Captain Ali Simeone

CAPTAINS WORDS

Everyone on the Girls Cross Country Team had a great season full of personal achievements. Our team of eleven girls practiced often during the summer. This paid off as seniors, Dianne Cerulli, Meg Saltzman, and Captain Jillian Ragucci had their strongest season on record and beat all previous times. As the season progressed, our team figured out that in order to succeed, we must work together. Our best race of the season was the league meet. We ended up moving up from eighth place in the Middlesex League to fourth place out of ten teams. Junior captain, Ali Simeone, our number one runner, earned a 14th place at the All State Meet. During the season, she was beat by only one other girl in the Middlesex League. She was also awarded the Middlesex League All-Star. Coach Norton encouraged us with his goal cards, pep talks, and cheering us on at the mile marks. Great job team!!!

The team prepares for a long day of running.

Dianne's gaining on Melrose.

Brittany keeps on running!

Ready, set, go!

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

Captain Scott Fixman and Coach Phil Riley

CAPTAINS WORDS

A cross-country runner must be strong, not only physically but also mentally. It takes many of hours of hard work for someone to demonstrate the true potential of racing for three miles at a consistently fast pace. Many members were inexperienced, and this is why we were initially hesitant regarding our success. We were able, however, to look past our overall record, and in the end, we certainly emerged stronger.

Leading the team this season were the five runners returning from the previous year. Not only was captain Scott Fixman our top runner in the meets, but he also earned a coveted spot in the Middlesex League All-Star team. Michael Rora, Sean Perry, Zach Kline, and Richard Pearl, our other veteran runners, were close behind, scoring top spots in every meet. Many of our new runners, who had previously competed in track, became an integral part of our team. These included juniors Marc Lodato, David Vargus, Teanney Yuen, and Tony DiBiase, as well as sophomore Matt Lawson. Throughout the entire season, every member of the team was incredibly dedicated to the sport. Whether it was a long and tiring workout, a weekend meet, or running through the blistering heat or numbing cold, no one ever complained or stopped trying his hardest.

While everyone on the team was a hard worker, many of them had to start from the beginning. Their perserverance paid off and the results were better than anyone, including the coach, had ever expected. Coach Riley helped inspire each and every member of the team to focus not only on the team's success but also on individual times. The runners really took this message to heart and improved dramatically over the season. By the last race of the season, every runner had improved his time anywhere from one to over five minutes. By viewing this impressive transformation, I am certain that the Stoneham Spartans can look forward to an extremely successful season next year. I would like to thank the guys for all of the great memories, and I want to wish next year's team the best of luck.

Tom and John keep pace 'till the end of the race.

FALL CHEERLEADING

Captain Jasmine Pham, Captain Megan Cunningham, Captain Melissa Gregory, Captain Nicole Dalamangas

CAPTAINS WORDS

Low numbers but high morale is what characterized the 2007 Fall Cheerleading Team. We had only fifteen girls who stayed committed to the team, but that's all we needed. They pulled through for us when we needed them to work hard. When times got rough, our coach, Ms. DiLisio, was there by our side. Never before have cheerleaders spent so much time in room 202. She was a great inspiration to all of us. Without her, we would have been lost and never been able to get through the season. We all grew very close. This cheerleading season has been the best season we could have asked for. We had huge support from our football players, soccer players, and parents.

All of our cheerleaders pulled together last minute to make our 2007 competition unbelievable. We worked hard every day to improve our performance and skills. We all had the drive to prove to ourselves and our fans that we were talented and worth their time to watch. We experienced many difficulties this year, losing girls at the last minute, having choreographers not show up, and drama that would put a dent in any team, but not ours. Every cheerleader gave her all when she was on the mat. We stuck every stunt to its fullest, hit every motion hard, smiled until it hurt, cheered to our fans, and danced our hearts out. We left that mat proud and confident. Dedication is just one of the many words that can describe the Fall Stoneham Cheerleaders.

Despite the hardships, we triumphed and had an amazing, memorable year together. We will never forget our team. They have done so much for us and we could never thank them enough. WE LOVE YOU GIRLS AND WILL MISS ALL OF YOU! Good luck next year!

BOYS SOCCER

Captain Amon Mohammadi, Captain Dave Quigley

CAPTAINS WORDS

We finished this season with a record of 10-7-3. Two of our wins were memorable as highlights of the season. In game #8, we beat Lexington with a score of 2-1. Lexington came into the game extremely confident riding a 7-0 record and having a Boston Globe article call them "the best team in the state". Our other very exciting win was against Wilmington through 80 minutes of regular play and 20 minutes of overtime to force a PK shootout. After both teams netted 4 of the 5 goals, it came down to sudden death. Steve Piro drilled his PK, which was followed by a game-winning save by an injured Dave Riggilio. Matt Trakimas put the team above himself as he took the place of the injured Dave Riggilio in net for the second half of the season.

Steve Piro, Bob DeCrescenzo, and Gerard Harrington proved to be the senior anchors of a solid Spartan defense. Jeremy Peters, Keith Cataldo, Nate Boardman, and Shaddi Ali were all crucial throughout the season as they created a spark off the bench. Without our coaching staff of Sir James Carino, Mr. Zampell, and Mr. Serino, another 10-win season would have been impossible. We are all very grateful to have such devoted and driven coaches. The youth on the team played a huge role and will continue to bring victories back to Stoneham next year.

GIRLS SOCCER

Captain Alexandra Yerxa, Coach Sharon Chapman, Captain Kimberly Trant

CAPTAINS WORDS

Although our record was 6-6-6, we consider our 2007 season successful. We had a competitive team made up of seven seniors, Kelli Conroy, Christina Izzicupo, Lindsay Manfra, Kelly Olsen, Taylor See, Kim Trant, and Alex Yerxa; followed by eight juniors, one sophomore, and four freshmen. With a young starting eleven, our season started off strong. We came out hard with our first two games tying two tough teams, proving our skill and determination to the league. After suffering a difficult loss to Melrose at the mid-season mark, we realized we had to pick up the intensity if we wanted to make it to the State Tournament.

With the help of Ms. Chapman's detailed scouting reports and concentrated practices, we came out hard in the second half picking up some early, vital tournament points. One of the most satisfying games of the season was holding first place Winchester scoreless for 75 minutes on poor field conditions. We scored early with one of the season's most memorable goals, a ricochet off of Christina's lower half. Unfortunately, the game ended in a tie, but looking back it was our most rewarding game of the season because we played with our hearts.

Our journey to the tourney came to a victorious end at our last home game versus Lexington, thanks to the help of one of our youngest players. Our life in the tournament was exciting, yet short-lived due to a controversial, game ending goal. Although Danvers was the number three seed and champions of their league, we kept them scoreless forcing a sudden death overtime. The game ended three minutes into overtime with a heartbreaking call by the officials. Even though our season ended with the other team cheering, we held our heads high and walked off the field with pride. From Speedy Bubble doing the Soulja Boy to Ms. Chapman's life lessons and team pasta parties, the season was filled with memories that we will never forget and will cherish forever. We wish the best of luck to our fellow seniors and to the younger girls who will hopefully lead next year's team to victory.

FOOTBALL

CAPTAINS WORDS

We had great season, despite our 2-9 record and some surprising upsets. We worked hard every week, day in and day out, even when fighting tough injuries or suffering a loss from the week before. We faced ups and downs throughout the season but the most important thing was that we had a great time. The team will never forget the great memories we shared both on the gridiron and outside of football. Some memories of the season were going to Prince Pizza, having pasta parties in the school cafeteria the night before a game, and bonding together like brothers as one big family. The highlights of our season came late when we beat Watertown in a blowout fashion for our first win and then beat Burlington the week after for the first time in 11 years in a thrilling upset on Senior Day. We joined together as a whole on Senior Day and played our hearts out.

Tim Lee got us started with an early touchdown run which gave us motivation and intensity throughout the rest of the game. Richie Abkarian had himself a day as he threw three touchdown passes to Chris Richmond who was on the receiving end of two touchdowns and Justin Ehrhardt who hauled in the other. Our defense stepped it up and made big plays and big stops when we needed them to. Our offense never hung their heads low and answered right back when Burlington put points on the board. Marc DeAngelo sealed the 34-27 victory with little time remaining. We would like to thank Coach Powers for everything that he has done for us both on and off the field and we wish him the best.

SWIMMING

Coach Hechenbleikner, Captain Melanie Barrineau, Captain Maura Houghton, Coach Collins

CAPTAINS WORDS

After another successful season, our high school swimming careers have come to an end. We started off strong at the beginning of the season with a win against Woburn. In our second meet, we managed an unheard of tie against a strong Belmont team, making them nervous for the second year in a row after losing to them by only 8 points last year. Continuing our undefeated streak, we beat Wakefield just before suffering our first loss to Winchester. The team then pulled through with a win against Burlington when we were down five swimmers including both captains. After a shutout of Melrose we lost our last two meets, Lexington and Reading, but kept up a positive attitude swimming fast times and personal bests. League Meet rolled around and almost everyone dropped time. We were represented well in the 500 yard freestyle by three of our juniors who all dropped significant amounts of time. After coming in 5th at the League Meet, we moved on to the post season with three individual swimmers and three relay teams. At the Sectional Championships, our 400 yard freestyle relay team consisting of freshmen Emily Houghton and Ally McCarville and Captains Melanie Barrineau and Maura Houghton, went a season best time of 4:06.99 just milliseconds off from the state cut time. At the Division Two State Championships, we had some great swims including Courtney Day's 17th place finish in the 200 yard individual medley. We had personal bests by Emily Houghton with her 14th place finish in the 100 yard backstroke and Maura Houghton with her 5th place finish in the 50 yard freestyle and 3rd place finish in the 100 yard freestyle for the fourth year in a row. Our relay teams also did well, bringing in a 9th and 10th place finish. Overall, we finished 4-4-1 out of league and 4-3-1 in league.

The season wasn't all about swimming though, it was filled with lots of team bonding and memories of pasta parties, toilet papering each other's houses, the annual swim team sleepover, and cramming 25 girls into a small tent at Town Day in the pouring rain. We will never forget the friends we have made and the amazing times we've had this season. We could never have accomplished all that we did without the support of the team as well as the unfailing support of our coaches, Coach Collins and Coach Hech. We will miss everyone and we wish them the best of luck next year!

BOYS TRACK

Coach Powers, Coach Riley, Captain Shaddi Ali, Captain Scott Carchide, Captain Scott Fixman, Captain Jeremy Peters, Captain Amon Mohammadi, Captain Craig Polizzi, Coach LeMoine, Coach Melkonian

CAPTAINS WORDS

This team may not have had the best record in the world, but we would not trade it for any other track team in the league. We faced a competitive Middlesex League, but our athletes gave 110% and were a serious challenge to our opponents. Seniors Shaddi Ali and Steve Igbeka set records in the high jump, Craig Polizzi and Scott Carchide threw far in the shot put, Amon Mohammadi and Scott Fixman ran until they dropped, and Jeremy Peters ran so hard that he injured his leg in the 300m. Our underclassmen truly stepped it up this year and filled a great deal of open spots, especially the hurdles which had a different running team every meet. Throughout the entire year, we kept our unity as well as Spartan spirit and had numerous, memorable moments. Who could forget Victor Magaletta pumping his arm every lap in the 1000m, Shaddi breaking the school record in the high jump, or Craig, Scott and Chris Gardner holding hands the last time they ran the 55m dash...ever. Although not always in the spotlight Max Kirchner, Darren Ansbigian, Bobby DeCrescenzo, Eric Buckley, and Mike Rora all competed to the best of their ability and scored some key points for the team in many tough meets. In the end, this was the most fun track season we have ever had, and we are extremely happy that no one gave up or brought the team down. We wish the best of luck to next year's indoor track team, and we wish to thank everyone, especially our coaches, for a terrific, final track season.

CAPTAINS WORDS

We're sure we can speak for all the seniors when we say that we are glad to have been able to work with this team during our last year here. They exceeded all our expectations and then some. Losing about eleven varsity scoring athletes last year left a big hole in our team; however, these upcoming freshmen filled that hole in no time. Our younger teammates stepped up and performed as if they were upperclassmen. We were fortunate to have some varsity scorers still on the team, and they continued to shine. We were pleased with our final record of 5-4 and cheered on Izzicupo who moved to the state level and persevered through adversity to be named top in the state. We couldn't have done it without our coaches working day in and day out, figuring out statistics, workouts, and how we could improve as a team and as individuals. We're sure going to miss hearing Ms. D. screaming her lungs out while we were on the last straightaway. We'll miss hearing Mr. Norton's answer to the simple question of what time the bus leaves, "Bus leaves at 3:30, which means be here at 3:20, which really means be here at 3:15." Whether some continue to run track in college or whether Stoneham track is the last of their career, we wish the best of luck to all our teammates in whatever they pursue.

GYMNASTICS

Coach See, Captain Jenna Melkonian, Captain Kaila Rello, Coach McNeil

CAPTAINS WORDS

The Stoneham High gymnastics team had another great season. This talented group of athletes kicked off the season with an outer-league meet against Medford. Winning the first meet proved their capability of domination in the Middlesex League. The team went on and beat Woburn and Wakefield. After losing to Melrose, the gymnasts regained their momentum and beat Winchester, Burlington, and Reading. At the league meet, the team came in second place with a score of 134.625.

Although the team was strong as a whole, individual achievements really pulled the team forward. Senior Taylor See continued to amaze everyone as an all-around competitor. She really proved herself when she received a perfect score of 10.0 on the balance beam at leagues. Senior Kelli Conroy, only a second-year gymnast, also performed her beam routine with grace, scoring in the 8's throughout the season. Every year we watched more and more talent come in from the younger gymnasts. We know the team will continue to do well. Thank you for making this season so memorable. Good luck in the years ahead!

BOYS BASKETBALL

CAPTAINS WORDS

Our record of 3-17 was not an indicator of how well we played this season. This year we were a very inexperienced team; nevertheless, many of our young players stepped up and played positions they never had before. Senior Dustin Feldman adapted to his new point guard position and was a huge help to our offense. Chris Puglia was the heart of our team and very supportive. When team morale was low, Puglia was always the one to cheer us up. James Dunne was a great outside threat with his three point shooting. He came in second place in the three-point shootout at the All-Star game. Co-captains Tim Lee and Matthew Trakimas led the team. Lee was a monster in the paint who had a career high of 19-points in the first win against Matignon at home. His inside presence, rebounding ability, physical play, and leadership kept us in many of our games. Trakimas was a threat down low as well. He kept the offense in rhythm and made sure everyone knew where to be at all times. Trakimas had two amazing back-to-back games, scoring 23-points against Watertown and 24-points at Burlington. Although we had only one league win, it was a memorable one against Melrose. Throughout the entire game, Coach Billy Killilea and his Stoneham Spartans were trailing by double digits; however, the players never gave up! We outplayed the Red Raiders in the 4th quarter by grabbing many rebounds and finishing each play with a bucket. In the final seconds of the game, the Spartans were able to come up with a 3-point victory. We will never forget the enjoyable pasta parties, hilarious moments on and off the court, and inside jokes with the team that will stay with us forever.

The boys await the outcome of the game.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Captain Gina Sicuso, Captain Alex Yerxa, Coach Billings, Captain Kelsey Corbett

CAPTAINS WORDS

This was an overall great year for both the Varsity and the JV basketball teams. We ended the season with a straight 10 and 10 record and high hopes for the up and coming post season. One of the most exciting highlights of the season was the Concord-Carlisle game when Silva hit two game winning free throws with just two seconds left on the clock to guarantee us the win. Another exciting moment this season was the only overtime game against Watertown. We were down by one with seven seconds left on the clock when Gina hit a free throw to put the game into overtime. In overtime we got two of their best players to foul out and ended up winning the game by five points. Our season was built off of hard work, positive attitudes, and strong relationships with each other. We all got along nicely and it really showed in our chemistry on the court. We want to thank Coach Smith and Coach Zampell for their help and support throughout the season, and we especially want to thank Coach Billings for pushing our team to play better and stronger every day. We really appreciate all of your effort and Craig's lovely scouting reports, and we have all definitely benefited from this experience. From pasta parties, Catch Phrase, the facemask, what is it good for, absolutely nothing, huh!, "we make the second," and Molly's impersonations -- it really is the story of our lives. There are so many memories that we will never forget. Thank you girls and good luck next year!

WINTER CHEERLEADING

Captain Maria Buonopane,
Captain Nicole Dalamangas

CAPTAINS WORDS

Although our season seemed to be shorter because we did not compete, the Spartan squad became very close over the winter season and was able to achieve every goal that we set. Led by three senior captains, Maria Buonopane, Nicole Dalamangas, and Jasmine Pham, the team was in good hands for an eventful season. Normally during the cheering season we would exhibit our cheer, dance, and tumbling skills at competition, but this year only two other teams were even considering competing. Additionally, due to our hectic schedules full of midterms, school, and work, we decided it was in everyone's best interest to concentrate on school spirit and cheering on our teams and forego competing. We felt completely appreciated by our fans and teams. An unforgettable game was Senior Night, which took place on Valentine's Day; we exchanged valentines with our basketball players. While cheering on the basketball and hockey teams for their home games, we were able to develop a strong bond and friendship with both teams. Thanks for a great season and good luck next year!

BOYS HOCKEY

Coach Seabury, Captain Roy Monson, Coach Seabury, Captain Joe Penney, Coach Seabury

CAPTAINS WORDS

This hockey season was by far our most memorable year yet, despite the discouraging news articles prior to the start of the season. Our team really came together and worked hard to surprise many people. This team had a lot of heat, and we all worked well together. The strong character and determination of our team helped us to come back from large deficits to win or tie. We impressed people with our competitive 3-2 loss to the undefeated Reading Rockets. The seniors have all been long-time friends and teammates since we could first skate, but we easily blended in with the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen. We were unique with our pregame National Anthem routine and came out together as a team instead of having only our starting line up announced. This was the most unselfish, team oriented group of guys we have ever played with. Not one person kept track of their goals or bragged about themselves. The seniors presented a strong presence and sense of leadership which we will reminisce about for the rest of our lives. This includes Joe Penney, Roy Monson, Devin Plummer, Steven Keith, Danny Sodergren, Gerard Harrington, Blaise Aliberti, Vinny Morano, and outstanding goal tender, Danny O'Quinn. On behalf of the 2008 seniors, we wish the best of luck to next year's hockey team.

GIRLS HOCKEY

Coach DeTeso, Coach Marrone-Joyce, Captain Margaret Zoladkowski, Captain Jessica Muolo, Coach Colarusso, Coach Marshall

CAPTAINS WORDS

Similar to previous seasons, our record certainly did not reflect our mental and physical growth as a team. Entering the season, we only had seven returning players and seven new freshmen. Each player knew that due to the size of the team, a solid, individual effort was needed from all. Each of the girls really stepped up to the challenge, and the improvement was clear. In the beginning of the season, we could only play two periods without running out of energy. In order to improve, all of the girls worked on the game, sharpening our skills, focusing on conditioning, and working on our strategies. By the end of the season we were able to maintain our energy through the third period. In addition to these improvements, we also had many close and exciting games against more challenging teams. One of our most memorable moments had to be at our first game versus Woburn. We lost 2-4, but this was a major accomplishment considering Woburn is one of the best teams in the league. Towards the end of the season, certain circumstances brought us together as a team. We really began to bond with each other, and every individual contributed something different and special. The highlight of this season was certainly the friendships that were made. For the seniors, this team will be greatly missed. This year was definitely a nice way to end our high school hockey careers. Thanks for an awesome season, good luck next year!

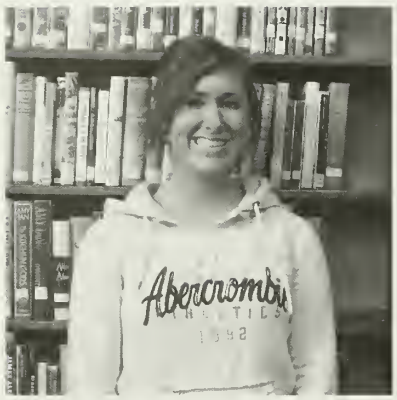
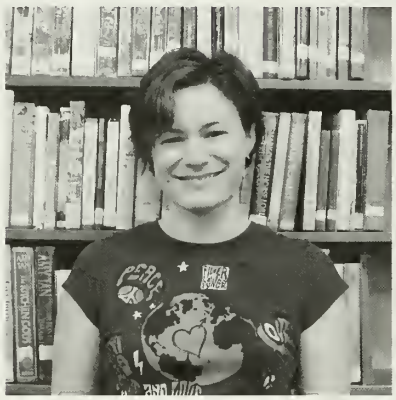
MEMORIES



"My favorite memory looking back on my high school years would have to be junior year on Halloween. On my way to my locker, ready to go home, I happen to glance up only to find my best friend, Jillian Ragucci, sliding down the hallway on her belly, clearly dressed in a full body penguin costume, coming right at me. I literally dropped my books and couldn't stop laughing. That had to be the funniest situation to look back on."

- Gretchen Grossheim



"I first started doing drama in the spring of freshman year. The show was Seussical the Musical and I was part of the building crew. I was a nervous little freshman and I didn't really know what to do in regards to basically every aspect of drama. I was really surprised when I found out how nice all the upperclassmen were and how much they helped me out. During that time, I realized that I wanted to be part of drama for the next three years."

- Annalisa Giglio

"Freshman year I came to this school knowing no one, being completely new. I never would have thought that I would gain the friends that I have now. One of my favorite memories was when tons of us went to Robin Hood at night to play Relivio. There were more than thirty of us running around, not caring how much we looked like little kids. I'll always remember freshman year and how it formed my life."

- Megan Cunningham

"I would like to thank Mr. Carino for letting me be the manager of the varsity boys soccer team for the 2006 and 2007 seasons. It was a great experience and everyone involved made me feel wanted and comfortable."

- Ashley Mulvanity

"My favorite memory of Stoneham High School was when a lot of the senior boys would get together before the football games and tailgate. We all came together to share our love and passion for two vital components of life: meat and football."

- Terence Landers

"My favorite memories are each year's burning of the boots at the end of the football season. This is when all the football team stands around a fire and the seniors share their memories and desire to win the Thanksgiving Day game. This year was especially memorable because it was the last time I would speak to my friends as a member of the SHS football team."

- Craig Polizzi

"An unforgettable memory of my high school career was bringing back the Stoneham field hockey team. Starting the school year off with only five interested players and no team to play on, left us in an almost hopeless situation. With the help of the new Athletic Director, Mr. Pignone, we pulled together a bigger and better team than we'd ever expected with two hardworking and all around amazing coaches. We bonded as a team unlike any other season, shared amazing memories, and even unexpectedly won and tied a few games. Nothing can top the feeling of determination paying off so well."

- Raisa Stockbridge

"One day my astronomy class was getting ready to go to the IMAX theatre with Mr. Jackson. As we were getting ready, Mr. Jackson came up to me and told me that there was not enough room in the bus so Jamie, Shannon, and I would be riding there and back with Ms. Vecchio. At first, I thought he was kidding. Then I realized he wasn't and I was actually going to be in a teacher's car. We were all nervous because we didn't really know Ms. Vecchio and we thought it would be awkward. During the car ride, we realized that it was actually better than being on the bus. We had a lot of fun and found out some secrets about Mr. Jackson!"

- Charlene Cashman

"Grease definitely was a memorable experience for me. I landed the role of Eugene which was the role I had always wanted since I saw the show put on several years ago by the school. It was an amazing cast. Seeing everyone stay late to work on scenes, choreography, or singing was truly a sight to see. And since it was Ms. Catalano's final show as director, we all pulled through to work even harder. The memories I had during the show and with the cast and crew will definitely stay with me for a long time. Hit 'Em Again RYDELL!"

- Cameron Kelly

"I remember on one day of Hispanic Heritage week several classes came to the auditorium. We enjoyed live Hispanic music and dancing. A few of my friends and I were backstage watching. One of the performers grabbed our hands and pulled us on stage. We danced and made fools of ourselves in front of everyone, but we had a fantastic time. I remember seeing everyone dancing in the audience, and I realized that it was one of those times I would always remember as a representation of my high school years."

- Vicky Blyde

"When I think back upon high school, I think back to the sports I have been involved in. One particular year in sports seems to stick out in my mind. It was my sophomore year and I played JV soccer throughout the season. Nearing the close of the season, I was moved up to varsity to be involved in the MIAA tournament. It was a great experience for me because I was given a chance to play with older kids and watch a great team play throughout the tournament. That year we ended up winning the Division II state title."

YEARBOOK EDITORS AND STAFF

Life has its twists and turns and if you fall, all you can do is laugh. Don't let the future tie you up in a knot. Go for your dreams even if they are a reach.

Thanks for the wonderful memories.

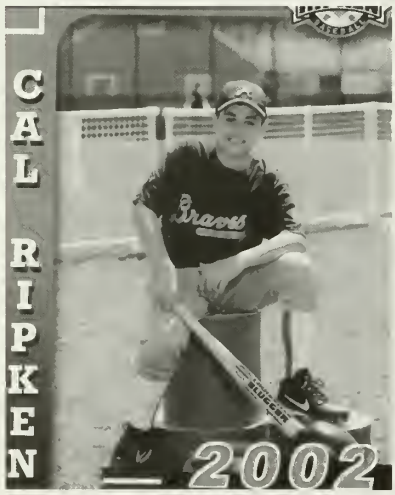
Love, Mom, Dad, and Ashley

Angelo A. Colucci

Our Little Boy Is All Grown Up



I hope the days come easy and the moments pass slow,
And each road leads where you want to go,
And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you,
And if one door opens to another door closed,
I hope you keep on walking till you find the window,
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile.

I hope you always forgive, and you never regret,
And you help somebody every chance you get,
Oh, you find God's grace, in every mistake,
And you always give more than you take,

But more than anything,
Our wish, for you, is that life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know we love you, and want the same things too,
This is our wish,

May all your dreams stay big.

We Love You!

Dear Megan,

From pigtails (pugtails?!) to Graduation, you have become a woman of excellence, showing depth, courage, and character beyond your years. We are so very proud of you.

Now, as you begin a new journey, know the unique strengths and talents you offer the world, and "run the race marked out for you with perseverance," because God is with you, Megan, to help you continue to succeed in life.

Thank you for the blessing you are and for the joy that you have brought to our lives, Meg.

Congratulations and we love you.

Mom, Dad, Jill, and Kimberly

Geoffrey Hong

Congratulations!

We are so very proud of your success, Geoff, and all your accomplishments through the years. Our very best wishes as you go on to that next adventure:

...Two roads diverged in a wood, and I --
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
